ALOHA RIFLEMEN.

Off to the flats on the eastern lands Were the lake skims up to the butts, Where the full-rigged ships and the steamer slips

Into the back-range ruts, To the place where the wary rifleman Shoots high from the big desire To hit old Bull-our boys will go-Mark time to the sound of their fire.

When the Lurline leaves the cuddling dock. She will carry a gallant load,

The best of all our Hawaiian shots, O'er the trackless ocean road. The Boys who will shoot for the Islands' fame, And those markers all may know,

They must keep their eye on the old Bull'seye When the keen Hawaiians show.

From the shorter range to the thousand yards, They will shoot without gauge nor rest; In the skirmish run that is far from fun We know they will do their best.

But, whether their score be large or small When the teams have all passed by, It is sure enough, without any bluff,

They'll have heard about old Hawaii. JACK DENSHAM.

The final results of the Tom Morris golf trophy competition which was recently won for the first time by the Denver Country Club, have come to hand. The Oahu Country Club was number 44 in a field of 62. This is Mails are due from the following said to be an excellent record and the said to be an excellent record and the great piece of promotion work.

Marston Campbell, with Messrs. Leighton and Meidenthal of the Hydrographic survey completed their inspection tour of the island yesterday morning. They took notes of the possibilities of conserving surface waters and the Superintendent of Pulbic Works
